Privacy Statement

MiLife Holdings Ltd ('MHL') collects and uses personal information as regulated by the Privacy Act 1993.

In accordance with the Act, personal information, defined as information about an identifiable natural person, may be collected only for a lawful purpose and directly from the individual concerned, with allowable exceptions. MHL collect personal information for the purposes of:

- Identifying you when you do interact with us
- Establishing your requirements
- Responding to your specific requests
- Setting up, administering and managing our services
- Understanding your needs and improving our service offering, including training and developing our staff and representatives.
- Keeping you up to date with the properties and offerings available from us

Disclosure

We use and disclose your personal information for the purposes we collected it.

We may use and disclose your personal information for a secondary purpose only if that secondary purpose is directly related to the purpose of collection.

MHL will not share personal information with any third parties unless written permission is given by the website visitor concerned.

Access and Correction

MHL will take reasonable steps to ensure that the information is correct, current and complete and safeguarded.

You are entitled to obtain confirmation from us that we hold personal information about you and you can request access to that personal information by contacting us. Your request will be honoured if the information is readily retrievable.

You are also entitled to request a correction to that information if you believe it to be incorrect. If the correction is not made, we will provide a correction statement attached to the information.
